ESCAPE

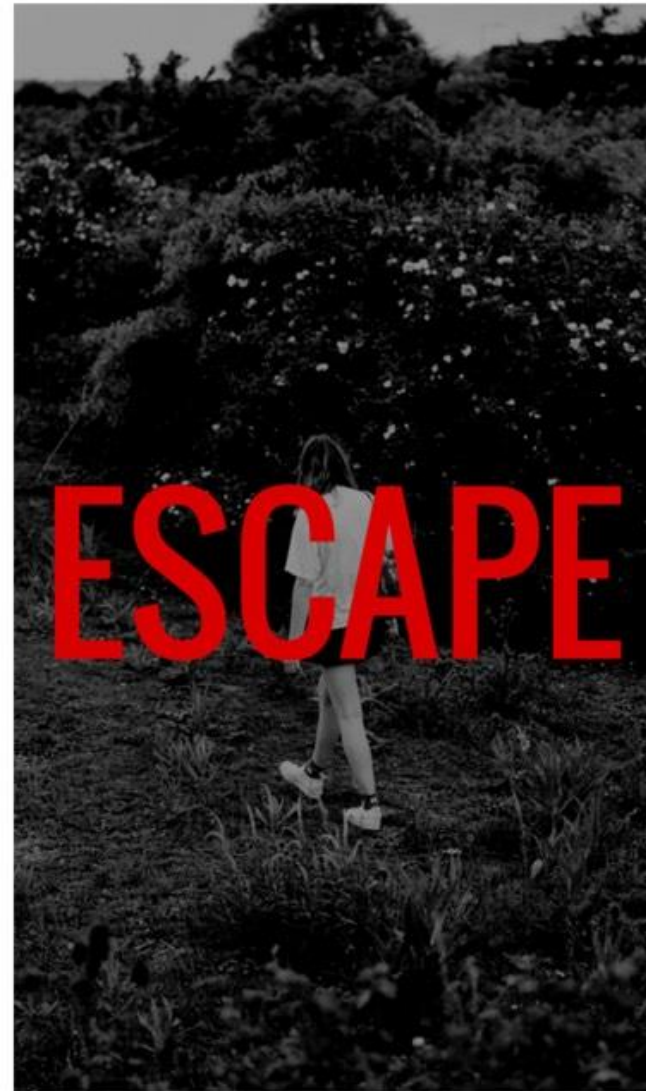

A form of temporary distraction from reality.

Something we all do and desire to remove us from our daily lives and stresses.

"Where i can actually breath and here myself breath without noise.
Where i can leave everyday life"

"My dreams"

ABUNDANCE OF STRESSES

We are the generation,
Of the futures population,
A civilisation,
That hates your modernisation,
Your high expectations,
And disgusting regulations.
So just for clarification,
Do you know we live in a world discrimination?
Unfair, sickening capitalisation,
Misread communication,
Prejudice categorisation.
This countries reputation,
Is such a disgrace,
Our generation have been misplaced,
Been erased,
From voting for our say for our place,
To at least try and save,
Our humans race....
I am sitting here trying to confide
That the exams teenagers are sit this year are something I can not describe.
6 hours at school, and another 3 we are expected to revise,
What has happened to our lives?
The abundance of stresses,
Are heads are messes,
With the idea that we have to achieve your constant successes.

What happened to the meaning of living?
The importance of love, hope and giving?
But your just taking,
Taking,
Wanting and Making.
What happened to going out into the world and discovering the world?
A place that has yet to be unfurled.
Where we can create ourselves,
Make ourselves,
And live every moment for ourselves.
